

CENTRAL VALLEY

International Agri-Center

AgVentures! at Heritage Complex in Tulare is a brand new world-class agriculture learning center on the show grounds of the International Agri-Center that opened to the public August 28, 2005. AgVentures! features about 15 custom-designed, professionally built interactive exhibits that portray important messages about agriculture, natural resources, and the future of the Central Valley. Visitors travel through the Local Look gallery to learn about life sciences, farming and agriculture technology. Admission includes entry to the historic Farm Equipment Museum and the Wells Fargo Theatre. Contact: International Agri-Center, (559) 688-1030, www.heritagecomplex.org.

Vacaville CVB Launches New Web Site

The Vacaville Conference and Visitors Bureau (VCVB) has launched its new Web site, www.vacavillenow.com to highlight the numerous attractions in the city of Vacaville. Visitors to the site will find information on things to do, a calendar of events and site-specific maps of Historic Downtown, Vacaville and the regional area. Contact: Vacaville Conference and Visitors Bureau, (707) 450-0500, www.vacavillenow.com.

VisitLodi.com

The Lodi Conference & Visitors Bureau is proud to announce its new Web site—www.visitloidi.com. The site is designed to be more user friendly and visually appealing and new features include mouse-over directories, an arts and culture page, events calendar, listing of event/meeting facilities and page dedicated to just tour operators. Contact: Lodi Conference & Visitors Bureau, (209) 365-1195, info@visitloidi.com, www.visitloidi.com.